Training for Trainers II

Set aside time for your own professional development—whether just starting out or looking to reenergize and refresh current knowledge of facilitation and skills, this class is for you!

This comprehensive five-day, 40-hour program meets the Bright from the Start's Training Approval System requirements for Training for Trainers, Level 1. Participants will explore best practices key to delivering high quality, interactive, training sessions. The training utilizes an active learning format in which participants practice the various techniques introduced, allowing trainers to adapt techniques to their own facilitation style.

Class Schedule Thursdays from 9:00am – 4:30pm

July 13th

Applying Adult Learner Theory

- This session will review and summarize adult learning theory pioneered by Malcolm Knowles. The session will also examine critical reflection, constructivism, and transformative learning.

July 14th

Motivating Adult Learners

- Examines a "learner centered" approach to training design and delivery that will take into account Abraham Maslow's hierarchy of needs theory and Parker Palmer's six principles of paradox in teaching and learning.

July 20th

Training Approaches to Guide Experiential Learning

- Through participation in interactive research, participants will discover training approaches that can be applied to their work as a trainer.

July 21st

Evaluation to Improve and Refine Practice as a Trainer

- Guides participants in exercises of peer and self evaluation to help each trainer to improve and refine their practices as a trainer.
